CHURCH LEADERSHIP COUNCIL ISSUES INVITATION FOR DISCERNMENT PROCESS

The Church Leadership Council will begin Choosing the Faithful Path: A Bible Study for Discerning a Faithful Future on Monday, August 7th, at 6:30 pm. It is a study co-authored by our District Superintendent, Dr. Rankin and being used throughout the country to help congregations fulfill Christ's call and commission of the church.

We would love to have input from additional members of our congregation and would like you to participate in this multi-week process. As a part of the process and discussion we will assess ourselves, our neighbors, our ability, willingness, and commitment, and choose a way forward for our congregation.

There is a small book available from the church office for those who wish to participate. If you have questions, feel free to talk to Pastor Jason or Carol Deaton, CLC Chair. Please hold this study and process in your prayers over the coming weeks as our leaders and members seek to discern God's direction for College Place Church.

BACKUP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THE CHILDREN'S PROGRAM ON SUNDAY MORNINGS

On occasion, we need back up volunteers for one or more of the nursery or the children's classes. This is a rare occurrence, but we would like to have a pool of volunteers who could fill in on short notice. By that, we mean the night before or when you arrive at church and we are short personnel you would fill in. We currently have two classes. The infants and our K-6 group. This fall we are looking to add a third class focused on teaching Bible studies to older elementary kids. Responsibilities are to keep the kids in class and busy for the main service.

Our Safe Sanctuary Policy requires we run a background check on volunteers. You will only be required to fill out the form. Again let me emphasize that this would be emergencies only and of a last minute as you come to church type of situation.

If you are interested in being in the volunteer pool, please let me know and I'll get you the forms. Ed Deaton, Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee Chair (336) 288-8194 or contact Jason.

Reservations are requested but not required.
